- East of 91st Ave
- North of the South Mountain Park & Gila River Indian Reservation
- South of the Salt River

The Application Process:

1. Please print and complete the application page (application must be signed by the student AND school counselor). Please write in the name, email and phone number on the signature line of the application of the person we should verify your application with and we will verify.
2. Use provided form showing evidence of regular involvement in charitable activities or volunteer service, school, church or community organizations.
3. Provide two letters of recommendation; one of which must be from a representative of where you volunteered for community service and one from a teacher or administrator from your high school. These can be submitted separately to the below address or via email to lovinglaveen@aol.com with student name and LCC Scholarship in the subject line.
4. Submit an official sealed copy of your school or home school transcripts showing a minimum of a 3.25 unweighted GPA. At the current time students are unable to pick-up sealed transcript. Schools are sending for scholarship and university acceptance. Please have them sent to the below address.
5. Submit your minimum 300-word typed essay by the deadline.

The Essay:

Please write an original essay with a 300-word minimum that answers the questions:

“What role does community service play in your life? How do you think your contribution made an impact or made the Laveen community better?”

The Deadline:

Please submit your application with all supporting material and the essay must be post marked by April 10, 2020 to: Laveen Community Council, Scholarship Committee, PO Box 488, Laveen AZ 85339

Applications received after the extended deadline will not be considered.

The Judging:

Representatives from the community will review the applications in a “blind” process where no characteristics other than the submissions and essays are known to the readers. The evaluators use a point system to determine the scholarship winners. Winners will be notified by phone and invited to attend the Community Council Meeting at 6:15 PM on Tuesday, May 5 to read their essays and receive their scholarship awards.
